

Birth year based on age of 72 at the time of his death.

Mr. Douglas came west as a young man; he settled first in Colorado then Reno. He moved to Goldfield in 1915, living there for three years before moving to Tonopah. He was a bookkeeper by profession and also had worked as a bartender. During WWII he operated a laundry and cleaning plant in Tonopah.

Ernest was a night room clerk at the Mizpah Hotel in Tonopah. He died from injuries after a brutal beating by a hotel guest there.