

_Rhyolite Herald, August 25, 1905

"LOCAL PANNINGS."

... Peter Kelley, aged about 45, died at Rhyolite Monday night. He was in the hospital at Goldfield for five months and came here about six weeks ago. While here he has been cared for by friends. By occupation he was a miner. The deceased has relatives in Green Bay, Wis., Ontario, Wis., and Honolulu. A sister in Wisconsin was notified by wire. The interment took place in the cemetery on the Amargosa desert.