

She married George Pettygrove in San Francisco. He preceded her in death in 1947. The couple came to Tonopah in 1903 where Mr. Pettygrove operated a plumbing business for many years.

Mrs. Pettygrove was a talented musician and for many years gave piano lessons.

She was a member of the Past Matron's Association and of Turquoise Chapter of O.E.S., which she served as secretary from 1913 until 1951.