

Dan was born at Death Valley Junction and died at Pasadena, CA where he had gone in hopes of better health. He had spent most of his life in Tonopah.

Survived by his mother, Mrs. Kittie Tubb of Tonopah, father R.M. Tubb of Ash Meadows; three brothers, Leon of San Diego, Robert of Pasadena and George of Long Beach.